

Human Rights Policy

Purpose

Vedanta Power is committed to the principles of sustainable development including protecting human life, health, and environment, provisioning of employment and business partner opportunities; promoting social wellbeing and adding value to the communities, near to the areas where we operate.

Protecting and respecting human dignity is central to our everyday business operations. We conduct our businesses in a fair and equitable manner, meeting our social responsibilities as a direct and indirect employer. We are committed to respecting the human rights of all our stakeholders including employees, contractor workforce, business partners, suppliers and communities including of socially vulnerable groups such as indigenous people; women; national or ethnic, religious, and linguistic minorities; children; LGBTQ people, people with disabilities.

This policy is forward looking and is aligned with United Nations Declaration on Human Rights, UN Guiding Principles of Business and Human Rights (the “Ruggie Principles”), Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), and ILO.

Scope

This policy is applicable to all Vedanta Power managed sites, licensees, outsourcing partners, corporate offices. This policy also applicable to all Vedanta Power employees, business partner employees, business partners, suppliers, and others with whom Vedanta Power does business.

In addition, this policy is applicable throughout the operational lifecycle of the projects. Furthermore, it extends to activities in our upstream and downstream value chain, limited to distribution, logistics, and sale of products and services to the customer.

Objective of the Human Rights Policy

Vedanta Power strives to:

- Be compliant with national regulatory requirements regarding human rights, labour practices and in all jurisdictions in which we operate.
- Develop systems to identify, manage, and mitigate risks and adverse impacts on direct and indirect workforce, communities, and environment.
- Avoid complicity with parties violating principles such as United Nations Declaration on Human Rights, UN Guiding Principles of Business and Human Rights (the “Ruggie Principles”), Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), and ILO.
- Promote a culture of respect by raising awareness on human rights, amongst employees, communities, business partners and relevant stakeholders.
- Assess risks against the policy expectations, across the company operations and the supply chain and reporting performance to ensure transparency.
- Set targets and objectives to avoid, reduce or mitigate human rights and labour related impacts on people and planet.
- Review the performance against the policy on a periodic basis as per our objectives including the sharing of good practices throughout the organization and stakeholders.

Human Rights Policy

Our commitment towards employees and contractual workers

- Have zero tolerance for any form of forced, compulsory or child labor, as well as human trafficked labor working at Vedanta Power managed and operated businesses or within business relationships across the supply chain.
- Promote fair, safe, and healthy working conditions as guided by the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights to Work.
- Recognize and respect employee rights to associate freely and to collective bargaining.
- Be an equal opportunity employer and ensure that all our employees are provided sufficient leaves and working hours do not exceed beyond the regulatory requirements.
- Ensure that all employees and contractor workforce are fairly and equitably paid, the remuneration structure is compliant with statutory obligations of the jurisdiction in which we operate.
- Strive to improve workforce representation by making it more inclusive and reflecting gender and culture-informed approaches.
- Hire competent employees, with preference to local employment as far as possible.
- Ensure relevant and appropriate training opportunities are made available for the employees and the contractor workforce for a continuous professional development.
- Ensure non-discrimination and treat all employees with respect and dignity and judge solely on their performance irrespective of their race, religion, caste, nationality, ethnicity, gender, age, disability, sexual orientation, HIV/AIDS status, and any other characteristic.
- Accelerate equality for all and to create an inclusive, accessible workplace that supports persons with disabilities (PwD).
- Do no harm to life and ensure physical and psychological safety, freedom, and well-being of our employees, communities, and other relevant stakeholders.
- Respect individuals' privacy and complying with applicable laws on collection, storage, use, retention, transfer, and deletion of personal information.

Our commitment towards local communities

- Avoid or minimize risks to and impacts on the health and safety of the local community during the project life cycle from both routine and non-routine circumstances.
- Respect and preserve the cultural lifestyle and heritage of the local communities.
- Work to obtain the free, prior, informed consent (FPIC) of IP / VTGs when projects are located on traditional or customary lands.
- Engage with the local community to understand their priorities and concerns and informing them of operations that might affect them in an accurate, transparent, culturally appropriate, and timely manner
- Avoid and minimize physical and economic displacement of people as much as possible by adopting appropriate practices.

Rajinder Singh Ahuja
CEO - Vedanta Power

Dated: 01-05-2026